SUBJECT: Recurring Requirements for Information, National Security Council (U)

Attached at Tab A is a list of general categories of information that are of interest to the National Security Council on a continuing basis. Please use this criteria when forwarding information, either electrically or via hard copy publication, to the NSC. This list will be updated semiannually, and supplemented by the biweekly "White House Situation Room Emphasis List". The Emphasis List is already being sent to your operations centers (less Treasury), and a sample is attached at Tab B. (C)

Electrically transmitted cables and messages with subject matter bearing on national security are processed by the Situation Room regardless of the address in the cable--"White House", "National Security Council", or "NSC". Thus, it is unnecessary to send cables to the NSC if already addressed to the White House. (U)

For State, please do not send low precedence, regular distribution cables in hard copy format any longer. If a low precedence cable should be sent to the NSC, please send electrically. (U)

The point of contact for these matters on the NSC staff is Michael K. Bohn, Director of the White House Situation Room, 456-2291, secure 7400, Grey 963-3640. (U)

Thank you for your continued cooperation. (U)

WHITE HOUSE SITUATION ROOM EMPHASIS

This is a list of transient issues; it will change from week to week. This list does not represent the totality of Situation Room interests. We are interested in breakthroughs or changes to the status quo.

These issues are not in priority order.

1. Iranian threat to shipping in Persian Gulf.
2. U.S. hostages in Lebanon
3. Potential hostilities between Israel and Syria, Lebanese Christians and Syria.
4. Anti-American terrorism.
5. Contadora process.
6. Middle East peace process breakthroughs.
7. New Soviet arms control initiatives.
8. Chernobyl incident.
9. Potential Soviet withdrawal from Afghanistan.
